Junk Vehicles & Nuisance Property Ordinances

Nobles County Sheriff's Department would like everyone to know that they will be strictly enforcing our junk vehicles and nuisance property ordinances.

Junk Cars & Trucks & Junk Farm Implements Ordinance

#95 states that no person shall park, keep, place or store or permit the parking or storage of a stock car, racing car or junk car or truck or junk farm implements on a public street or alley, or on any private lands or premises he or she owns, occupies or controls unless it shall be within a building on such private premises.

This includes any vehicle which is not in operable condition, or which is partially dismantled, or which is used for sale of parts or as a source of repair or replacement parts for other vehicles, or which is kept for scrapping, dismantling, or salvage of any kind, or which is not properly licensed for operation within the state, or does not bear current registration. Ordinance #92, the "Junk Ordinance", deals with anything that is a nuisance to a property or the surrounding properties. The most common are: Accumulation of refuse or other debris. All noxious weeds and other rank growths of vegetation upon private property.

Accumulations In The Open means discarded or disused machinery, household appliances, automobile bodies, or other materials in a manner conducive to the harboring of rats, mice or vermin, or the rank growth of vegetation among the items so accumulated. Complete Ordinances are available at City Hall. The Sheriff's Department will be in touch with anyone in violation. Tickets will be issued if the problem is not taken care of within the time frame given. We hope that all residents will take notice of their properties and keep them clean. A special Thank You to the residents who already comply!

PET OWNER RESPONSIBILITIES

Just a reminder of the City of Rushmore ordinances regarding dogs, cats, or pets, City Ordinances are enforced by the Nobles County Sheriff Department. All animals shall receive from their owners or keepers, kind treatment, housing in the winter, and sufficient food and water for their comfort. Any person not treating their pet in such a humane manner will be subject to penalty. Because the keeping of three or more dogs or other animals of the species, other than tropical fish, on the same premises is subject to great abuse, the keeping of three or more dogs or other animals of the same species, on the same premises, whether by the same person or not, and for whatever purpose kept, is hereby declared to be a nuisance and is prohibited, except for a fresh litter, which may be kept for a period of 3 months. The owner of any animal or person having the custody or control of any animal shall be responsible for cleaning up any feces of the animal and disposing of the feces in a sanitary manner whether on their own property, the property of another, or on public property. It is unlawful for any person, as owner or possessor of a pet, to suffer or permit such pet to disturb the peace and quiet of the neighborhood by barking, howling, whining, or making any other loud or unusual noise. It is unlawful for any owner or other possessor of a pet to permit such pet to run at large. Any pet found in the county running at large shall be placed in a pet pound furnished or arranged for by the county. Every pet so placed shall be retained for a period of 5 business days. Pets shall be released to their owner after payment of the impounding fee and maintenance costs. All dogs over the age of 6 months kept in the City shall be licensed at City Hall. Any violations should be reported to the Nobles County Sheriff Department. Their phone number is 507-295-5400.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find "filler" articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
